From the Senior Pastor

The team

This morning, Calvary members have the privilege of voting for new elders and deacons. These will join our existing leadership team. With the recent addition of

John & Gudny Munro

Matt Thompson and Rob Reece to our pastoral staff, we have a great group of pastors. Each one of them loves Christ, loves the Word of God, loves people, and is committed to Calvary's mission of being and making authentic followers of Jesus Christ.

As the new Session, deacons, and pastors work side by side in serving the Lord, join us in praying that 2018 may be a year of extraordinary blessings from our great God.

I am thankful for each person the Lord brings to join our Calvary family. Under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, we are privileged to make disciples of all the nations. ■

Calvary elects new leadership today

Calvary's annual election of elders and deacons will be held this morning at a brief congregational meeting at the conclusion of the 9:45 AM service.

Calvary Church members who are ages 18+ may vote. Ushers will distribute the ballots. No absentee ballots will be accepted; ballots must be submitted during the election in the Sanctuary. When finalized, results will be announced to the congregation and posted at calvarychurch.com/election.
