Men, join us for Bible study this summer

Before Amen | Selected Tuesdays beginning June 13, 7:00–9:00 PM, Room 401

God invites us to have conversation with Him to deepen our relationship. This new six-session summer series will help you let go of uncertainties about prayer, trust that God hears, and embrace a prayer life that brings peace and rest. Register at calvarychurch.com/beforeamen.

Understanding Biblical Prophecy | Selected Thursdays, 7:00–8:30 PM, Room 227

Join us on Thursday, June 22. This continuing study of the prophetic books of the Old Testament will focus on Isaiah this summer. Helpful illustrations, charts, and videos complement the series.

Minor Prophets | Monday mornings, 6:30–7:30 AM, Conf. Rm. A

In our study of Joel, Jonah, Amos, Hosea, and Micah, we find these Old Testament prophets warn of God's judgment, yet reveal His love, grace, and mercy. Join us for verse-by-verse discussion!

Support our HOME Ministry NHFC hosts

Calvary's HOME Ministry reaches out with love and support to orphaned and vulnerable children in our community and around the world. This summer, five Calvary families will be hosting orphaned teens from Latvia for six weeks through the New Horizons For Children (NHFC) program. Please pray for these families as their guests arrive soon! You can help support the hosts by providing gift cards for restaurants, clothing, and activities. There is also a need for donated dental and optometry services for the teens. A Latvian speaker who could help with translation would be very helpful! Stop by Galleria table 3 today for details or see calvarychurch.com/newhorizons. Contact: Debbie Davis, ddavis716@yahoo.com

You can help provide "A Place of Hope"

Volunteer Info Meeting | Sunday, June 18, 12:30–1:00 PM, Banquet Room

Orientation & Training | Wednesday, July 12, 6:30–8:30 PM, Banquet Room

In partnership with the Salvation Army and area churches, Calvary will be providing shelter and meals for 10–12 homeless women during the week of July 24–31. By offering "A Place of Hope" during a time of need, we want to share Christ's love in a meaningful way. Each morning we'll provide breakfast and transportation via our rented vans to the Salvation Army Center uptown, where the group will participate in a day program. In the afternoons we'll bring the ladies back to the CLC for dinner, an evening activity, and an overnight stay in our "guest rooms."

You can help! Calvary's Street Ministry team needs additional volunteers to serve as van drivers, overnight hosts, greeters, activity hosts, and guest room keepers for the 7-day/7-night period. Get details and sign up at Galleria table 2 today or check calvarychurch.com/aplaceofhope. Contact: Sibuj Rajappan, 704.341.5328, srajappan@calvarychurch.com

■ JUNE 11, 2017

From the Senior Pastor

That day...

Martin Luther said that for the believer in Jesus Christ there are only two days—today and that day! He was referring to the day which will never end, the eternal day. In heaven "night will be no more" (Revelation 22:5).

What an incredible future we have as followers of Jesus Christ. Our best life is not now, but is yet to come! I realize it is difficult to understand eternity, as we are so conditioned by the tangible things around us. But how wonderful that through the grace of God we shall be in that day for which there is no sunset. "For the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb" (Revelation 21:23).

If we have such a hope before us, surely we should live holy lives loving and serving our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. ■
