Find out how you can help provide “A Place of Hope” today

Volunteer Info Meeting | TODAY, 12:30–1:00 PM, Banquet Room

Orientation & Training | Wednesday, July 12, 6:30–8:30 PM, Banquet Room

In partnership with the Salvation Army and area churches, Calvary will be providing shelter and meals for 10–12 homeless women during the week of July 24–31. By offering “A Place of Hope” during a time when other resources for the homeless are less accessible, we want to share Christ’s love in a practical and meaningful way.

How it works: Each morning Calvary provides breakfast and transportation via our rented vans to the Salvation Army Center uptown, where the group of women will participate in a day program. In the afternoons we’ll bring the ladies back to the Calvary Life Center for dinner, an evening activity, and an overnight stay in our “guest rooms” in the CLC. We’ll also provide lunch and daytime activities over the weekend.

You can help! Find out more at the Volunteer Info Meeting today at 12:30 PM in the Banquet Room. We need additional volunteers to serve as overnight hosts, greeters, weekend activity hosts, weekday evening hosts, and guest room keepers for the 7-day/7-night period. You may serve one or more days in a variety of roles. Can’t stay for the meeting today? Stop by Galleria table 2 or check calvarychurch.com/aplaceofhope. From the Senior Pastor

The end is near

In January last year, I began to preach consecutively through the book of Revelation. We did take some breaks in the series, but now the end is near! Next Sunday I plan to preach the final message in the series, so don’t miss it!

John & Gudny Munro

While I have enjoyed the study on future events, the greatest blessing for me is to have focused throughout the series on our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God. I have tried not to sensationalize our studies, but to concentrate on the text of Scripture and its application for us.

May our eager expectation for the return of our Savior never be diminished. In the uncertainty and craziness of our world, it is a stabilizing comfort to know that our great God is in control, and our Savior is coming soon. Keep looking up! ■

Ready for baptism?

Support our HOME Ministry NHFC hosts

Calvary’s HOME Ministry reaches out with love and support to orphaned and vulnerable children in our community and around the world. This summer, five Calvary families will be hosting orphaned teens from Latvia for six weeks through the New Horizons For Children (NHFC) program. Please pray for these families as their guests arrive soon! You can help support the hosts by providing gift cards for restaurants, clothing, and activities. There is also a need for donated dental and optometry services for the teens. A Latvian speaker who could help with translation would be very helpful! Stop by Galleria table 3 today for details or see calvarychurch.com/newhorizons. Contact: Debbie Davis, ddavis716@yahoo.com
