

Pray for “A Place of Hope”

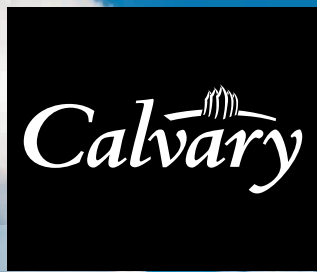

“For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me” — Matthew 25:35

This week Calvary will be providing meals and shelter for 10 homeless women, offering a place of hope during a time of need. Each afternoon, we will bring the group from the uptown Salvation Army center to our CLC for dinner, an evening activity, and an overnight stay in our “guest rooms.” Each morning, we will provide transportation back to the Salvation Army so the women can participate in their day program.

Please pray for our guests and all those who will be serving them this week. Thank you to our volunteers who will participate and meet the many logistical needs! For more information, please check calvarychurch.com/aplaceofhope.

■ JULY 23, 2017

From the Senior Pastor

Favorite themes

Before beginning two new message series on September 10, I thought I would preach on four of my favorite themes. While I love preaching consecutively through books of the Bible, it is appropriate from time to time to preach on some topics. The ones I have chosen are foundational to the Christian faith, and I know these will be helpful to us all. Do invite others to hear this “mini topical series.” The upcoming themes are as follows:

John & Gudny Munro

July 30 | The Grace of God

August 20 | The Word of God

August 27 | The Peace of God

September 3 | The Cross of Christ

As we hear again these great truths from God’s Word, may our lives truly be God-centered. ■
