JANUARY 13, 2019

From the Senior Pastor

Displaying Jesus

One of our themes for 2019 is "Display and Proclaim Jesus with Grace and Truth." By the way we live, we demonstrate

John & Gudny Munro

the difference Jesus makes in our lives, and with our lips we tell others about our magnificent Savior. This must be done with grace and truth. I have always wondered why David was called "a man after God's own heart." He was far from perfect! In tonight's message, we will get some understanding of this—David displayed God's brilliant grace. Join us as we look at the often forgotten story of David and Mephibosheth. This will give us an example of how important it is that we not only receive God's abounding grace, but we must display that grace to others. Think of the impact we would have if all of us were displaying and proclaiming Jesus with grace and truth! ■

THE LIFE OF DAVID

SUNDAYS AT 6:00 PM

On Sunday evenings, Pastor John Munro continues our study of the life of David, the young shepherd who became Israel's greatest king—and the only person described in Scripture as "a man after God's own heart." Join us tonight!
